ARLINGTON COMMERCE BOARD HOLDS ELECTION

New officers of the Arlington Chamber of Commerce were elected by that body at the Middlesex Sportsman's clubhouse last evening.

The new board consists of the following: President, David A. Wilcox; vice president, Charles T. McManus; secretary, L. Maurice Hatch; treasurer, Nelson J. Bowers; directors, Charles H. Higgins, James O. Holt, M. Ernest Moore, John D. O'Leary, Leonard T. Robert, Charles Dockrill, William A. McNeal and W. B. Henderson; trustee, Rufus W. Blake.

Messrs. Hatch and Bowers are the only two men to be re-elected, all other being new officers. The term of office is for one year. A brief business meeting at which annual reports of officers were submitted also took place.

The election followed a caterer's dinner in observance of the annual Ladies' Night. Following the election, members and their lady friends enjoyed a concert by Miss Phyllis Blake and Morton Bowe, both of Arlington. These two artists drew considerable applause for their splendid work. The gathering then enjoyed dancing until a late hour to the music of Lew Bow's Arlington dance orchestra. Each person present received attractive favors and everyone congratulated the committee in charge for the success of the evening.

FUNDS INCREASING FOR WASHINGTON MEMORIAL TREE IN ARLINGTON

Contributions for the evergreen tree in memory of George Washington are increasing gradually this week.

A second meeting of the George Washington Memorial Committee was held Tuesday evening, March 29 at the office of the Arlington Storage Warehouse with the following members present: Chairman John Loud; Secretary, Mrs. Herbert Stephens; Treasurer, Walter T. Chamberlain; and F. P. Hawkes, Walter K. Hutchinson, Mrs. Nita B. Moses.

It was decided that the location of the Community Christmas Tree, which is the special project being undertaken by the Committee, is to be in the lot directly in front of the Central Fire Station, provided the departments in charge of this location give approval.

It was further decided that the contract be awarded to H. L. Frost of Arlington to install a living evergreen tree in the proper location from a landscape point of view, twenty feet high, and under a guarantee of five years.

The Treasurer announced the receipt of contributions from the following organizations in town: Sons of Italy, Arlington Men's Club, Searchlight Club, Assembly Club, Community Club, Kiwanis Club, and the Friday Social Club; the amount to date is about thirty dollars toward the total desired of two hundred dollars.

The Committee sincerely hopes that every organization in town will make its contributions so that all citizens may have an opportunity to participate in the gift of the Community Christmas Tree. Boxes with a picture of an evergreen tree will be found in all the banks and in several of the stores.

What more fitting memorial can Arlington give to the Founder of our Country than a beautiful living evergreen tree, always giving out its message of good will and cheer in the center of Arlington, an emblem of honor and love to George Washington? Let everyone join with the Committee in this observance of the Bicentennial!

LOCAL BROKER COMMITS SUICIDE IN HUB OFFICE

Robert E. Burnett of Arlington, an investment broker with offices at 19 Congress street, Boston, committed suicide in his office early last evening. He shot himself in the abdomen with a .38-calibre pistol.

Lights burning in the office attracted the attention of Thomas Claggett, night watchman of the building, and when he entered the office by means of a pass key, he found Burnett lying on the floor near a desk, the pistol beside him. Claggett notified the police of Station 2 and later Associate Medical Examiner William J. Brickley was notified.

According to the medical examiner there was no apparent cause for the suicide. He said the broker left two notes of a personal nature to members of his family, but refused to divulge the contents of the letters.

Mr. Burnett resided at 19 Wildwood avenue, this town. He was 68 years old and leaves his wife, a son and a daughter. The family moved to Arlington less than a year ago.

Honor Twins

One honor student in a family is unusual, but when there are two—well, that's something to shout about. To the Greenough family of Proffit, Va., goes that distinction, for Amherst College has honored the Greenough twins, Tom (top) and Bob, with election to Phi Beta Kappa. Bob is also president of the Students' Council, the highest honor a student can win. Both youths are also active athletes, Bob being quarterback on the varsity eleven and Tom starring at soccer.

STATE LEGISLATIVE MATTERS DISCUSSED BY SELECTMEN

Scheduled Rally For Roosevelt To Be Held Over

The Democratic rally, in support of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt for the presidency, which was scheduled to take place at the Robbings Memorial Town Hall in Arlington next Monday evening, April 11, has been postponed. Luke Manning, prominent Democratic leader, stated yesterday that every possible effort to hold the Arlington rally before the presidential primaries on April 26 would be made by the Roosevelt supporters.

The Arlington rally had to be postponed because of the big rally in Lowell next Monday evening as it would be impossible for the chief speakers, including Mayor Curley and James D. Roosevelt, Jr., to be present in Arlington for any great length of time that night. Other attractions having already been dated for Arlington Town Hall, the local committee is in doubt as to when a rally can be held here.

A large delegation of Arlington Democrats will attend the Lowell rally, according to present plans.

Arlington Selectmen Criticize Highway Bill—Board Favors Referendum on County Construction Projects in the Future — Oppose New Cambridge Plant—To Allow Bus Stop On Mystic Street

The Arlington board of Selectmen took action upon several matters pertaining to proposed Massachusetts legislation now before the House at a regular meeting in the Town Hall last Monday evening.

The board voted a resolution asking State Senator Warren and Representative Crosby to oppose House Bill number 132 regarding the construction of the proposed highway which will pass through property in the town of Arlington. This action was taken because of the fact that the assessments provided in the bill for land damages where the highway will pass are regarded as unfair.

The Selectmen also voted to support legislative bill which would provide that appropriations for Middlesex county hospitals and jails costing over $200,000 for which county towns and cities are to be assessed in the future be put to a referendum before construction goes ahead. This action is the aftermath of the recent high assessments against Middlesex county towns and cities for the construction of the new tuberculosis hospital in Waltham for which Arlington was assessed $117,000. Because present financial conditions of cities and towns throughout the country have made it difficult for communities to raise the money to pay for the tuberculosis hospital, considerable resentment has been shown by the towns. It is pointed out that these individual towns have had no say in the matter of con-

CHILDREN'S SUNLIGHT HOSPITAL TO BENEFIT FROM WRESTLING CARD

Box-office sales indicate that the Children's Sunlight Hospital will be substantially benefited as a result of the championship wrestling contest between Champion Jim Londos, the Greek Adonis and the Masked Marvel tonight. Besides the nine bouts carded there will be many other features, including a band contest between five leading organizations of the state for two handsome trophies offered by Joe "Toots" Mondt, wrestling director of the Boston Garden.

Mondt has agreed to allow Londos alone to take a peek at the Hooded Grappler before he leaves for the ring in order to satisfy Jimmy that it won't be Strangler Lewis he'll be wrestling. It doesn't matter to Jimmy "he else it is, he hopes it is Henri Deglane, but he says that he has at least three offers of a hundred thousand dollars to meet Lewis and he doesn't mean to be caught napping and do it for any less sum—if he should make up his mind to meet the Strangler.

The semi-final between the freakish Leo Pinetzk of Poland and Tiny Roebuck, the Choctaw Indian, which will be best two out of three falls as is the main event, promises to furnish all sorts of thrills.

"Gentleman" Jack Washburn who has worked up the fans to a pitch that few other wrestling "bad men" on the mat have ever done will try to pin the shoulders of Kola Kwariani, the Russian Stonewall, to the canvas in faster time than did Londos recently so he can cement his claims to a bout with the Greek.

A crowded house is expected as all those who purchase seats will be given free chances on a new 1932 Plymouth as well as eleven other valuable prizes for the General Motors Corporation drawing on Saturday.

Many Boston Garden favorites will be seen in the rest of the supporting card. There will be thirty-minute bouts between George Kotsanaros, Londos' deadly enemy and Elmer Johanssen, the Norwegian champion who has won favor here in the two bouts he has been seen in; George Zaharias, of Pueblo and Farmer George McLeod; George Linnehan, the promising youth of Wayland and Mike Romano of New York and Babe Caddock, nephew of the famous Earl and Jack Smith, the "Chicago Sheik".

Herman "Cannonball" Hiekman who delivers the flying tackle with all the speed and deadliness he did for the unbeaten Tennessee eleven of 1931, for whom he won an All-American guardship and Herbie Freeman, former Jewish champion, will meet over the fifteen-minute route and Kewpie Kilroy, former Boston College boy and Doug Wycoff, another former football star from Georgia Tech, will meet in the opening ten-minute bout.

MAY RETIRE TEMPORARILY

Young Jack Downey, 16-year old member of the North Medford Club long-distance running team who turned in a marvellous performance in finishing second last Saturday in the Presentation A. C. 10-miler, has forwarded his entry for the annual Cathedral run of the same distance to be held in South End, Boston, next Saturday afternoon.

Downey may run and then again he may not. He has been advised to stay away from the game for a short time as the strain is getting to be too much for him. Last Saturday when he was running a close second with the finish line less than a mile away he was on the verge of dropping out. Jimmy Henigan happened to be riding in one of the official cars beside Downey and he got out to pace the lad over the remainder of the course, encouraging him to stick it out to the finish.

Downey is a Senior at Medford High and appears to have a great future ahead of him in long-distance running. Next fall he will enroll at Northeastern and entertains high hopes of making the Freshman three mile cross-country team. His mates of the North Medford Club fear he will burn himself out before fall if he continues to compete in the many distance runs scheduled during the spring and summer seasons.

If the youngster heeds their advice he will not run Saturday or any other day for at least a year, except with the cross-country team at Northeastern. He is active enough to keep in good condition and has plenty of time ahead of him to make his way up in the ranks of prominent distance men.

HARVARD FRESHMEN CANDIDATES

John "Bee" Fitzpatrick, Medford High 1931 baseball captain, has reported for the freshman nine at Harvard and appears to have an excellent chance of knocking off the shortstop position. "Bee" has been unfortunate in suffering a slight sprained ankle in the practice session last Wednesday but owing to the annual spring vacation during which practice has been suspended, he will not be handicapped too much.

Practice will be resumed next Monday and the Medford boy hopes to be back in shape by that time. He has already shaken the crutches and is able to hobble about with the aid of the cane.

Joe Gianino, another Medford boy who didn't play in high school, is also a candidate for the Crimson first-year outfit and stands a fine chance of working into an outfield berth. Both Fitzpatrick and Gianino were on the Freshman basketball squad which recently concluded its season. Fitzpatrick won the final game of the season by sinking three foul shots in the last minute of play, making up a two-point deficit and adding the winning marker.

OPEN FOR NEW MEMBERS

The Medford Girls' Club will practice again this evening in the Medford High gym and next Wednesday night the athletes hope to have the first outdoor workout of the season. The team is at present preparing for the meet at the Boston Y. M. C. A. on April 16th, the proceeds of which will be forwarded to the Olympic fund. In that gathering the Medford girls will compete in all junior national and open events.

The Girls' Club is rapidly expanding and now has a total of 40 girls on the membership list. Five were added last week. They are Anna Hogan, Mary Lanier, Ruth Ashton, Ruth Marshall and Elsie Larson. Miss Lanier is the sister of Chet Lanier, colored heavyweight boxer from West Medford who recently made his pro debut after losing the final bout of the New England title tourney.

Eddie Pidgeon, popular Medford High mentor who coaches the Girls' Club and who has done more than any other Medford man to promote interest in athletics for young women, will receive new members at any time. He makes it clear that any girl will be welcome regardless of her ability. As you know it is Eddie's happy faculty of making good athletes of any group no matter what ability they show at the start.

Girls wishing to join should make it a point to be present at tonight's practice and enter their names with Coach Pidgeon. He will be only too glad to receive them and help them along in any one of the many events they would like to attempt.

DOWNES STILL RECOVERING

Frank "Cheese" McCrehan, Boston College baseball coach, is much concerned about a starting pitcher for the opening game of the season. Harry Downes, the Medford boy who was the regular first baseman last season, was scheduled to hurl the opener but recently underwent an operation and has been ordered to take another week of rest. Harry was a spectator at the practice yesterday and reported to McCrehan that he will work out some time next week.

Boston College looks forward to a successful campaign. The Eagles certainly have two of the best college players on the right side of the infield, Jimmy Crowley and Captain Andy Spognardi, in a victory against Holy Cross, is missing and McCrehan is the leading hitters of the circuit. Crowley, a husky of some 6 feet 2 inches and 185 pounds, is a consistent .400 slugger.

Captain Pete Herman, present Kents Hill coach who turned Both played with Boston Twilight League clubs last summer and banking on Downes to pull the Maroon and Gold through in the series with the Cross. Harry will be forced to work back into condition slowly and will take things easy until the latter half of the season. The first contest with the Purple is scheduled at Worcester on Memorial Day and the tall Medford boy hopes to be the starting moundman.

PICKUPS

Willard Morrill, the fellow who hurled for Tufts back in '24 and '25, just prior to the entrance of Frank "Monk" Shuman, pitched four innings for Jersey City against the Red Sox on last Sunday, holding Shauno Collins' boys to four scattered singles and no runs. Morrill, the property of the New York Giants is spending his fifth year in pro ball and hopes to work back to the big tent permanently before the finish of the current season. Lew Manly, Tufts football and basketball coach, has been elected Vice-President of the New England basketball coaches' association and will automatically assume the duties of President next year. Somerville High, which has two games scheduled with Medford, looks forward to a successful year on the diamond. Coach Charlie Dickerman is blessed with two experienced fingers and many veteran infielders and outfielders. It has practically become a fashion for the Red and Blue to cop the Suburban League championship. Somerville too is cutting down expenses in baseball and has scheduled only a dozen games instead of the usual 16.

Mrs. Bridget Murphy To Be Buried At Oak Grove Cemetery

Mrs. Bridget Murphy, widow of Patrick Murphy, died at her home 115 Jerome street, West Medford, yesterday after a prolonged illness.

The funeral will be held from her home, Thursday morning at 8:15, followed by a solemn high mass at St. Raphael's church, at 9 o'clock. The interment will be at Oak Grove cemetery.

BACK FROM TRIP

Prof. William Northrop Morse, of 15 Vernon street, West Medford, Fletcher professor of Drama at Tufts college, recently returned from a trip to New York.

While in New York Prof. Morse attended the Public Speaking conference held at Columbia University, and was the guest of the National Broadcasting company at a special program arranged for the conference.

New Expedition May Seek Lost Explorer

Report by Jungle Trapper That He Had Met Colonel Fawcett in Amazon Wilderness Revives Hope for Explorer Missing Seven Years.

The report of Stephan Rattin, Swiss trapper, who recently returned to Sao Paulo, Brazil, after a journey through the wilds of the upper Amazon, that he had met a white man in the jungle who said he was a British Army colonel, has renewed hope in England that Colonel H. P. Fawcett is still alive. Although Rattin's story is not given much credence by Brazilian authorities, British officials think it worth investigating and a movement is on foot to send an expedition into the jungle to seek traces of the missing explorer and his companions. Since Fawcett, his son, Jack, and Releigh Rinnell, an English youth, plunged into the jungle wilderness of Brazil to seek a lost civilization their fate has been lost in mystery. Many search parties have penetrated the region where they were believed to have been lost in an effort to solve the riddle of their disappearance. Colonel G. M. Dyot, English explorer, led an expedition into the Amazon country and gave his opinion that Fawcett and his companions were either killed by Indians or had died of privations. However, there have been many reports that the lost colonel is still alive. Several jungle wanderers have claimed to have seen and spoken with him. One of the most notable was Luis Leube, former chief of police in the Brazilian town of Cuyaba. Leube was positive in his identification of the colonel. However, scientists and explorers who know what conditions are in the wild country, are certain that Fawcett could not have survived for seven years in a region where death reaches out in many forms for the white man.

Here Is A New Sunday Pastime

Mr. Editor: Last Sunday my brother and I were strolling along Lawrence road, toward the Lawrence Memorial hospital. It was about noon and we had nothing to do except amuse ourselves as we walked along.

At length we neared the intersection of Governors avenue and Lawrence road.

"Let's count the number of cars that travel along Lawrence road, and see how many out of a hundred that stop at the intersection," said my brother.

"O. K.," I said. "That's right, too they should stop, shouldn't they, because there are stop signs placed on the corners."

On the west side of the intersection the stop sign is plainly visible. On the east side the stop sign is hidden from the view of the approaching motorist.

So we sat down and counted exactly 100 cars that approached and crossed the intersection. And we found the following facts:

1. Fifty cars out of one hundred stopped to obey the law.

2. Forty of these cars that stopped came from the west side of the intersection. This means that the stop sign on the West side can be seen plainly.

3. The average speed of cars that didn't stop was 35 miles per hour. One young brainless girl whizzed by the intersection at 50 miles per hour. Another young sheik sped by about 55. Still another man drove his large sedan across the intersection at 50 miles per hour while 7 adults and one child were crossing the street. This car did not slow down and swerved out of the path of the pedestrians.

4. The cars that did stop were of the more expensive type of cars, and the drivers of these cars were of the more intelligent looking people.

5. The stop sign on the east side of the intersection is hidden from the average motorist's view. There is a telephone pole directly in front of it.

6. The time consumed for these hundred cars to pass by was seven minutes.

Thus, this spot is one of the most dangerous in Medford. The hospital should have the right of way for ambulances and doctors, especially from Governors' avenue. Yet, every other motorist disregards the order to stop. The more intelligent citizen stops his car and regards the rights of his fellow citizens. The non-citizens do not stop. And nothing will be done about this until some ambulance is struck broadside by some foolish driver who fails to stop as he should.

Possibly a better and more prominent sign on the east side would reduce this given percentage.

JOHN D. HOLT.

Many Attend Open Meeting of Court St. Cecilia, C. D. A.

A fine meeting and supper was enjoyed Monday evening by Court St. Cecilia, Catholic Daughters of America. Over sixty members and guests were present.

Due to the absence of the Grand Regent, Mrs. Anna Fitzgerald, because of illness in her family, Miss Gertrude Curry, vice grand regent presided.

The first speaker was Rev. John W. Garrick, Chaplain of the Court, who commended the Catholic Daughters for their fine appearance, and their alertness in supporting bills in Legislature on Child Labor and the Maternity Aid as well as Educational bills.

Miss Marianne Collins, State Regent, spoke of the cooperation and unity that she has had while in office and gave statistics showing that over $45,778.00 had been given voluntarily by Catholic Daughters of America in Massachusetts last year alone. She considered it quite a sum when one considered that almost every Catholic Daughter also belonged to some other society interested in charity.

Miss Collins stated that in the National organization, Massachusetts ranked third in the Retreat Movement, fourth in rank in President Hoover's relief for unemployment fund and fourth in members entering religious life.

Mrs. Mary McCarthy, District Deputy, then spoke and reminded the gathering that records showed that the Catholic Daughters of America was the largest order of National Catholic women.

"A Dish of China Tea" presented through the American Legion Auxiliary, 45, then followed.

Mrs. Adelaide Devaney, President of the Auxiliary introduced the cast. Playing and singing followed until a late hour.

Comment was made on the beautiful decorations and the plentiful well cooked supper.

Corsages of violets were presented to Miss Collins and Mrs. McCarthy. Mrs. Gertrude E. Curry was chairman of the evening assisted by the following: Anna Fitzgerald, G. R.; Cecilia G. Curry, PGR; Anna O'Neil, PGR; Agnes V. Smith, PGR; Beatrice Nestor, Agnes Nestor, Catherine Jays, Nellie Sampson, Mrs. Connell, Mrs. Gracis, Mrs. O'Gara, Sarah Lowell Barry and Irene McCrystal.

The business meeting of the month will be held Monday, April 18th, in Colonial Hall at 8 p. m.

Lord Jeffs Victors In Tournament

The Lord Jeffs of Medford, comprised of members of last season's Medford High basketball team, contested in the feature game in the final trial round of the Boston Boys' Club tournament in Charlestown last night. The Lord Jeffs defeated the Quincy Independents, members of the Boston Amateur League, in the second division by a 16-13 score.

The game was exciting and well played throughout with the defensive work of each team being outstanding. Dick Dealy was high scorer for the winners with five points.

The West Medford A. C., in the cub division, was also victorious last night, taking the measure of the Winthrop Arrows 10-9, the winning basket coming in the last second of play. The summaries:

SUMMER PLAY SCHOOLS CUT OUT AS A MATTER OF ECONOMY THIS YEAR

University Extension Graduate Courses For Teachers

James A. Moyer, director of the University Extension division, State department of Education, announces the addition of four graduate courses in education to the recently issued state-wide schedule of 50 summer courses for teachers.

This special program of courses, intended for teachers, principals, and students of education, will be given at Massachusetts State college, Amherst, from July 6 to August 1. All four courses carry credit toward the graduate degree of master of science as well as the undergraduate bachelor's degree. The courses are in "Principles and Methods of Teaching," "Vocational Guidance," "Secondary Education," and "Applied Psychology." Professors Winthrop S. Welles and Harry N. Glick, both of the department of education, Massachusetts State college, will be the instructors.

Care has been taken in planning this schedule to offer students a choice between a full program of residence study for the four weeks' session, or a part-time program requiring class attendance on only one or two days of each week. It is possible to earn during the session from one to five semester hours of college credit. "Principles and Methods of Teaching" and "Vocational Guidance" are both one-point courses and will be held on Wednesdays beginning July 6, with morning and afternoon sessions. The other two courses, "Secondary Education" and "Applied Psychology" are evaluated at two semester hours each. They will meet on Mondays and Fridays beginning July 8. There are no conflicts between the meeting times of any of these classes.

In addition to these classes at Amherst, 50 other University Extension courses for teachers will be given in twelve centers throughout the State—Boston, Brockton, Fitchburg, Greenfield, Hyannis, Lowell, New Bedford, Newburyport, North Adams, Sattum, Springfield, and Worcester. A bulletin describing this program in full may be obtained by writing to University Extension, 217 State House, Boston.

HOTEL TIMES SQUARE

43rd St. West of Broadway, New York
R. C. A. Radio in Every Room

Because of the financial condition of the city, the school committee will dispense with the summer play schools this year, motions to ask the city for an appropriation of $2,000 for such schools being lost and for $250 for one at the Davenport district only both being lost. Members of the committee voting against the motions stated that they heartily approved the play schools but believed that under the conditions this year they should not be held. Total enrollment last year was about 500 daily.

Last year the $2,000 provided some equipment, a supervisor and 11 instructors. The play schools ran eight weeks. Salaries took $1733 and the balance went for supplies and equipment.

It would cost the same amount to operate the schools for the same period this year. Last year's work was a great benefit to the children and was well carried out. Supt. Kadesch reported. Because of the city's financial condition this year he had left the matter for the committee to decide.

Miss Songster moved that the committee ask the city for a $2,000 appropriation.

Mr. Daley said when the budget was considered, it was unanimously decided to omit the summer play schools. All the committee believed in the summer play schools, he said, but as a measure of economy, it should be eliminated for this year. Other members felt the same way and Miss Songster's motion was lost. Mr. McDermott then moved $350 for one in the Davenport district, stating there was no playground in that section of the city. His motion was lost.

U. meet at New Haven, Conn. Degener was also runner-up for the low-board championship, being given a perfect score for his one and half gain with a pike. This was the only dive of the flight adjudged perfect.

GIRL SCOUT BETTY—The Hostesses—By Montfort Amory

Betty lands the first contract for the young caterers, who have decided to go into business temporarily, to earn money for camp.

Their first job is to provide refreshments at a bridge party being given by Betty's mother, and the little "hostesses" go to work eagerly.

Their debut is a great success. Betty's mother explains that everything was prepared by the girls after school hours, and that as several of the girls have passed their Girl Scout "Hostess" tests they knew exactly what to serve and how to serve it.

Cosmopolitan Club Holds Whist Party

Colonial Hall was well filled last night, the occasion being the first whist party held by the Cosmopolitan club of Medford.

MacDonald was chairman and he was assisted by Clarence L. Thompson as master of ceremonies.

The high scorers included Mrs. F. H. Sahl, Richard Jordan, Richard Hatfield, Miss Emily

Green and Miss Lillian Morrison. The next regular meeting of the club will be held in room 7, Medford building, on Thursday evening, April 7, at 8 o'clock.

West Medford

—Mrs. George W. Logan, of 59 Brooks street, returned home a few days ago after a stay of several weeks in Florida.

—Mrs. Harry Pearson and son Donald, formerly of Allston street, motoring on from their home in Bloomfield, N. J., arrived the past weekend to spend a few days with Mrs. Pearson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Brown, of 28 Brooks street.

With Mrs. Pearson were Mrs. Boatman and her little daughter, who formerly lived in West Medford.

—Mr. and Mrs. James R. McDonald, of 85 Brooks street, returned home Sunday from Florida.

Mrs. McDonald, who went down earlier in the season, was joined there by Mr. McDonald for the latter part of her stay.

—Robert Sylvia of Gleason street returned to Proctor academy after spending the Easter vacation with his parents.

South Medford

—William Burke, formerly of South Medford, now residing in Orient Heights, is the owner of a forty-foot motor launch, given to him by his uncle. As soon as the mild weather sets in and sailing conditions are favorable, he intends to use the boat for excursion purposes. Mr. Burke is now a member of the Winthrop Boat club.

—Arthur Ciccolo, 12 Shapley avenue, former radio engineer for a well known Boston broadcasting station, and several colleagues who are interested in the latest developments in the radio field, held a discussion at his home Monday night, on the possibilities of erecting a small broadcasting station in South Medford.

—The Modernettes girls' club of South Medford, is planning another bowling tournament. Great rivalry exists between Miss Dolly Mahaffy, who was the highest scorer of points in the last bowling match, and Miss Rutiles Freda, who scored a close second on the averages. The Modernettes are trying to induce the Mystic A. A. to co-operate with them in arranging a gigantic outing either to Lakeview or some other suitable spot the latter part of May.

—After a short layoff, Tom Kerr, 35 Albion street, is back at work with a coal company located in Somerville.

—Sam Spampinato, 4 Joseph street, has recovered from an illness.

—Alan Armitage, 66 Dexter street, is taking swimming lessons from an instructor in the Boston Y. M. C. A.

ENTERTAINS GROUP

The Educational Plato society of Winthrop was entertained by little Pauline Gioiosa of Medford Hillside, who rendered toe, hallet, tap and acrobatic dances. Pauline, who is only eight years of age, certainly amazed the audience with her talent. The society showed their appreciation by overwhelming applause and many gifts.

Pauline is a pupil of Miss Kathleen Vincent O'Hara of Medford.

Woburn Funds Tied Up In Closed Bank

An unusual case involving funds tied up in the closed Medford Trust Co. was heard in Woburn court yesterday when, to protect the right of the city of Woburn, M. Catino of Medford was before the court for failure to turn over to the city of Woburn taxes collected by him as constable.

Officials of Woburn admitted that Catino was willing to turn over the funds but that they were held in the closed bank. The case was continued to April 21st to see if settlement of the matter can be arranged.

It is alleged that $1800 in back taxes was collected and that funds of Catino in the closed bank are more than ample to pay the amount. The collecting was done under the direction of Mayor P. J. Gallagher and Tax Collector Michael T. Golden.

Scene of Family Massacre

Here is the lonely homestead near Berino, N. M., where bandits killed the wife and six children of Malquadio Espinosa (inset) after they had failed to find $5,000 which Espinosa was believed to have hidden in the house. Espinosa, the sole survivor of his family, told police he escaped death by lying on the floor as if he had been killed. He is held by authorities while the aunt for the killers is being pushed into Northern Mexico.

Bay State Communities Competing For Title Safest American City

Massachusetts has almost four times as many cities and towns competing in the National traffic safety contest for 1932 as any other state in the Union, the Governor's committee on street and highway safety was advised by the National Safety Council, sponsors of the contest.

Forty-four states, the district of Columbia and the Hawaiian Islands are competing, but out of the 13 states with ten or more cities and towns represented Massachusetts tops the entire list with 116 communities competing for the title of the safest American city in the seven population groups into which the competition is divided.

New Jersey is next to Massachusetts with 31 cities and towns competing. Michigan is next with 22, Illinois has 19, Pennsylvania 18, Iowa 17, California 17, Ohio 15, Kansas 14, Arkansas, North Carolina, Minnesota and New York 10 each.

A report on the standings of the cities in the various population groups is expected within a few weeks, but the effects of the contest already have been noted in varying forms of safety activities prompted by the spur of the competition. Already 32 cities have adopted a new system through discovery that accurate knowledge of traffic accidents is necessary before effective steps in prevention can be made.

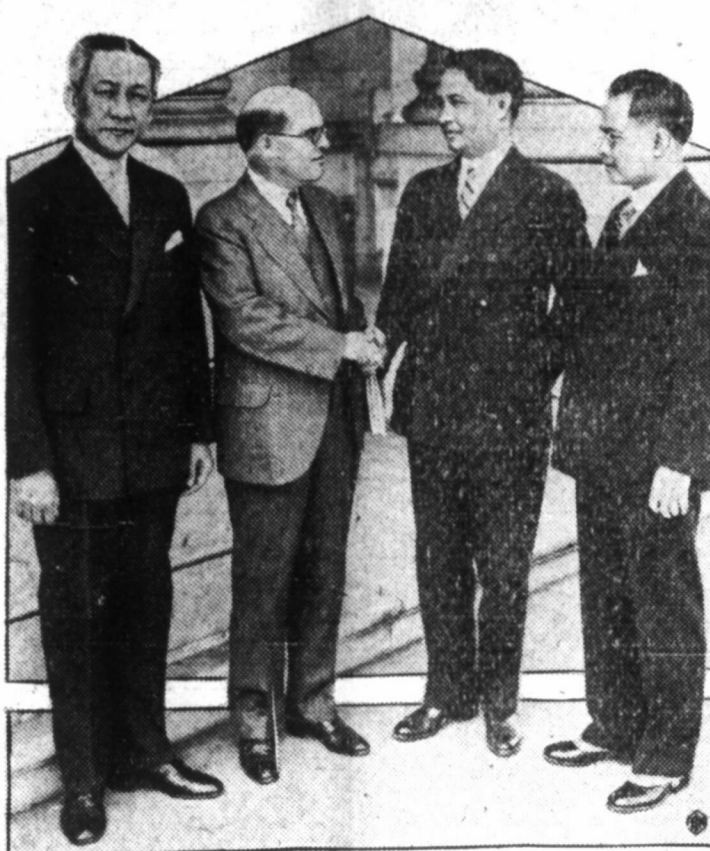

In Massachusetts, the city of Brockton is the latest convert to this method, which has been adopted in conjunction with the city-wide survey to reduce accidents there sponsored by Mayor Horace C. Baker in cooperation with the Governor's committee. The Governor's committee also has extended its facilities to all other cities and towns in the state to aid in the safety educational programs which are a part of the activities on which the national safety awards will be made, and also has helped in lining up the support of chambers of commerce, American Legion posts, Kiwanis Rotary and Lions clubs and other organizations in various localities.

The complete list of Massachusetts cities and towns in the contest is made public for the first time as follows: Acushnet, Adams, Amesbury, Amherst, Arlington, ATTLEBORO, Auburn, Belcherston, Berkley, BEVERLY, Billerica, BOSTON, Boylston, Braintree, Bridgewater, BROCKTON, CAMBRIDGE, Carver, Charlton, Chatham, CHELSEA, Chester, CHICOPEE, Colrain, Concord, Dartmouth, Dedham, Deerfield, East Greenwich, East Greenwich, EAST RIVER, Fairhaven, FITCHBURG, Foxboro, Framingham, GARDNER, Georgetown, Gloucester, Haverhill, Haverhill, HOLYOKE, Hubbardston, Hudson, Kingston, LAWRENCE, Lexington, Lincoln, LEOMINSTER, Longmeadow, LOWELL.

Luther Child Tufts Student Builds Glider

Luther Moore Child, Jr., of 143 Warren street, West Medford, and Thornburn Kennedy, of Malden, seniors in the Engineering school of Tufts college, are designing and building a glider which will be on exhibition at the 29th annual Engineering Night of Tufts college to be held Friday, evening April 22, from 7:30 until 10. The glider will be taken later to Cape Cod for tests.

On engineering night the four departments of the Engineering school, civil, mechanical, electrical, and chemical, and also the new Education building, will be open for the inspection of graduates, friends, and prospective students. There will be guides at each of the buildings to explain the work done in the various departments, and to point out special features. Other interesting exhibits will be the world's smallest 8 cylinder carrying automobile in the mechanical laboratory, where Reginald Geer of Somerville, and Harold Hatch of Winchester, both seniors working with Professor Wesley C. Entirely New Type Poll of Prohibition Question Under Way

With thousands of ballot post cards going to voters throughout New England, the National Liberal Alliance, according to an announcement made by its chairman, Francis Clay Harley, has inaugurated an entirely new type of poll on the prohibition question. Unlike most straw votes that have been taken on this question in the past this vote, through the medium of signed post cards, goes direct to senators and congressmen at Washington as well as to the national political parties.

These post card ballots give the recipient an opportunity to vote either wet or dry, for or against the repeal of the Eighteenth amendment, or for or against modification of the Volstead Act. The ballots also give the voter the opportunity to vote for or against a national referendum on the question. It is the purpose of the Alliance, whose New England headquarters are at the Hotel Westminster, Boston, to extend this poll so that eventually it will reach every state in the country.

The purpose of the National Liberal Alliance, now revived after its very active campaign covering the period from 1921 to 1926, was and is to obtain an honest expression of the American people on the outstanding subject of prohibition," said Mr. Harley, former mayor of Astoria, Oregon, and now a resident of Boston. "This poll gives everyone, both men and women, wet and dry, an opportunity to vote for or against the repeal of the Eighteenth amendment, for or against modification of the Volstead Act, for or against a national referendum.

"The National Liberal Alliance is unique in that it is either wet or dry; it is dependent. It believes the time has arrived to give the voters of America their first opportunity to register on this perplexing question direct with their representatives in Washington in order that these representatives may be guided as to the exact feeling of their constituents. We have started here in New England because we believe that the conservative, highly intelligent vote of our New England states will give us a really valuable opinion of how real, genuine Americans feel on this question.

"The fundamental purpose of the Alliance is to take an absolutely fair and impartial referendum of American voters on this prohibition question. Whether wet or dry, the people of this country owe it to themselves and our country to settle this question once and for all. We must prove the courage of our convictions and the best way to prove it is by sending these post card ballots direct to Washington. The vote will be known only to our senators and representatives.

"We hope eventually to reach the 50,000,000 voters of the country with this poll which I consider equivalent to an official referendum inasmuch as it goes direct to our representatives in Washington. Incidentally it will cost the taxpayers much less than an official referendum and in my humble opinion it will be just as effective as showing Congress and our Republican and Democratic platform makers the real feeling of the people on this question.

"We are asking the voters to help defray the expense of this campaign, but on the other hand we want every person who receives these ballots to send them to their representatives in Washington regardless of whether they contribute one cent to the campaign. All monies received will be used for postage, printing, addressing, mailing and for clerk hire from the unemployed ranks. No officer receives any compensation. The important thing is to register your vote."

Seeks Freedom To Press Suit For $200,000

Having won her petition for the removal of her temporary guardian in the Middlesex Probate court, Miss Alice G. Porter, 33, of Medford, a former Boston school teacher, now seeks in the superior court to remove her guardian ad litem, in order that she may be free to press suits for more than $200,000 against the estate of her cousin, the late Allan Hooker, Bromfield street broker, who died in 1927.

Miss Porter's suits are based on an allegation that she holds a promissory note of her cousin for $100,000 and in possession of documents revealing that Hooker promised to marry her and had entered into an agreement with her by which he was to leave her his entire estate when he died. Hooker married a short time before his death, however, and his widow claimed his estate. It is said that Hooker's estate amounts to about $175,000.

Looking forward to welcoming two thousand Christian Endeavorers from Middlesex County to Cambridge on Tuesday, April 19, the Cambridge Union Convention Committee is preparing final arrangements.

Since last week, the following well-known leaders in Young People's work have been secured as conference leaders: Carole M. Wright, General; Prof. A. Edwin Wells, Publicity; Anita Kemp, Missionary; Christine McAskill, Junior; Pearl Leslie, Building Programs.

The morning session in Sanders Theatre, Harvard University, will open at 10:30 a. m. with an address by Rev. Ambrose Bailey, D.D., of the First United Baptist Church, Lowell. In addition to the previously announced trips through historic Cambridge, a baseball game between members of the Cambridge Endeavor Union and members of some rival Union within the County has been planned.

Memorial Hall, also part of Harvard University, will be used for the box lunches at noon and for the banquet at 5:30 p. m. when the entire convention will enjoy the banquet together. The installation of the newly-elected County officers by the Rev. Eugene Dinsmore Dolloff, D. D., West Medford Baptist church, will take place during the evening session. Awards for Union work during the past year as well as the County loving cup for convention attendance will be made at this time. The message at this closing session will be brought by the Rev. Arthur Lee Kinsolving of Trinity church, Boston.
